I'd like to thank my parents and friends of course; they made me who I am. But I'd also like to thank those I didn't like; they too made me who I am. And finally I want to thank the cast of Jersey Shore for showing me how not to behave in life.

My deepest thanks goes out to my family, both biological and otherwise, for being an unbelievably strong and inspiring presence throughout my time at Sacred Heart. I'd like to single out my AP English Language Wolf Pack for reasons that only you guys will ever understand, and most importantly, I thank every single person I have ever had the privilege of working with on my speech team; you have meant more to me than I will ever be able to put into words. I am forever indebted to the Sacred Heart community for shaping me into the person I am today. The people I have met and the relationships I have formed here will forever be a part of me, and I wouldn't want it any other way.

To Mom and Dad. I can't thank you guys enough for what you've done for me. You've done an amazing job. You've taught me how to be a leader and stand out from everyone else but you can have fun while doing so. Thanks for being the best parents and even better friends! To Brett, you've always been there for me. It's one thing having a brother but it's another thing to have a best friend-brother. Meaghan, thanks for having the best laugh ever. Seriously it's contagious. You're a great sister to have. To Dah and Nana you've been more than grandparents. You've taught me so much and you've had a tremendous influence on my life. Nana, thanks for all the life lessons. I'll always remember them and I know if I ever need someone to talk to with an open mind I can come to you. Dah, thanks for bringing hockey into my life. It's meant so much to me excelling in the sport while having you by my side pushing me all along the way. You're so much more than a grandfather to me. To Uncle Al and Auntie Beth thanks for being my home away from home. To my friends and Hannah thanks for being there for me throughout the years. I love you guys and thanks for everything.

It seems like freshman orientation was just yesterday, and now we're on our way to the next step in our lives. It has been a long, and to say the least, entertaining journey -- and I couldn't have done anything without the support from my family and friends. A special thanks goes to my best friend Maddi Haley. Through all the ups and downs, you've remained my best friend and like a sister to me for all four years -- the ever-lasting memories from the Vermont trips, our week-long sleepovers, and the nights we spent hours laughing about the "log-legs tree-trunks," and, of course, our trips to Savers. Thanks to all my friends for making my high school experience so memorable and fun – eye juice! I wish the best for everyone and hope we all stay in touch. I'll always remember the great laughs and time spent together!

Bio: These last four years have truly been amazing. I want to thank my family, friends, and teachers for all you have done for me. Without the love and support from my mom and step dad none of this would have been possible; so thank you. I also want to thank my brother for being the best big brother and role model a little sister could ever ask for. I appreciate it from the bottom of my heart; I love you guys. I couldn't have asked for better relationships with the past and present faculty; especially Mr. Giardi and Mr. Morgan.

Memories

Bethany & Brianna + Aiella

Congratulations on your graduation.

We are all so proud of both of you. You have given all of us endless joy and wonderful memories.

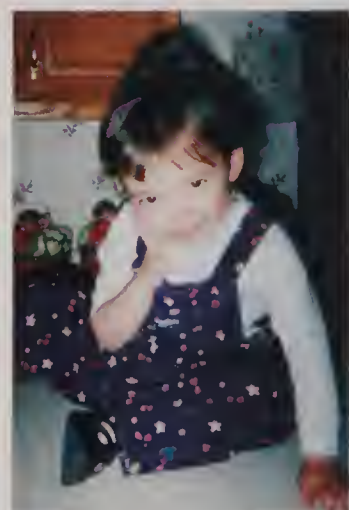

Your compassion, integrity, and enthusiasm for life will help you to meet your individual challenges ahead. Though it will be hard to let you go, we know it is time to share you with the world and we look forward to seeing each unique future unfold.

Stay strong in your convictions, celebrate "all" of your achievements along the way, have gratitude, and always remember to sing out loud, "Say What You Need To Say."

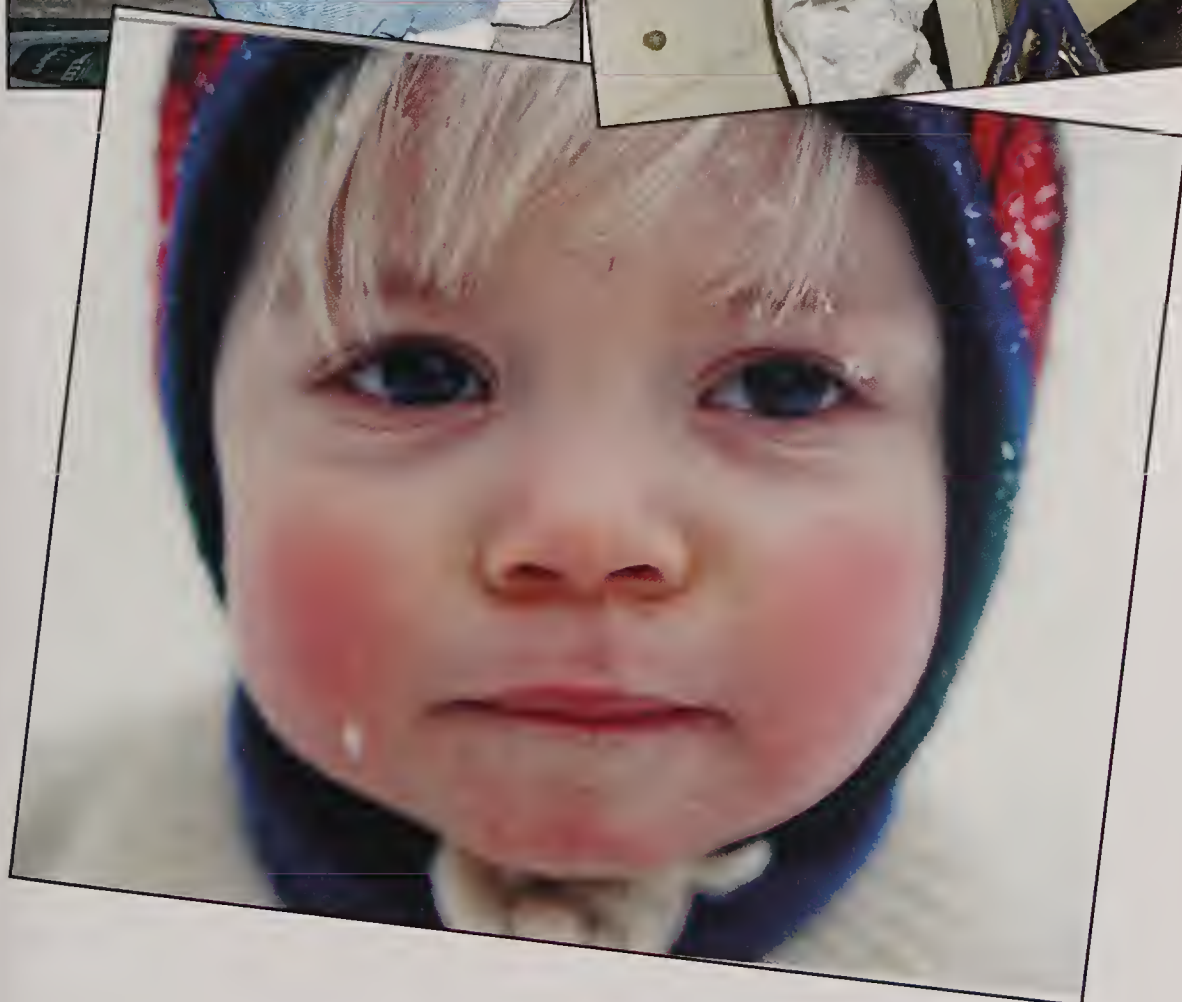

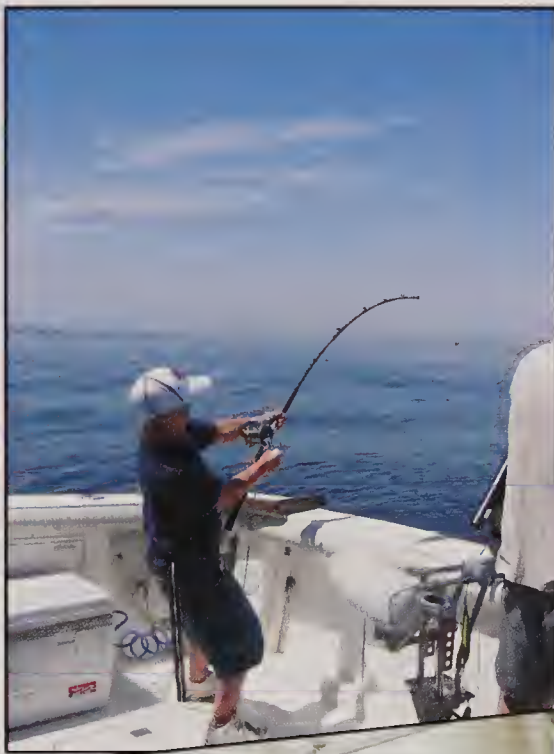

Thank you for sharing so much with all of us. May you always have as much happiness in your life as you have brought to all of us.

Love You Back.....!!!

Mom, Dad, Kelli, Chris, Mike, Kim, AnneMarie and Nick

James Michael M. Imlach

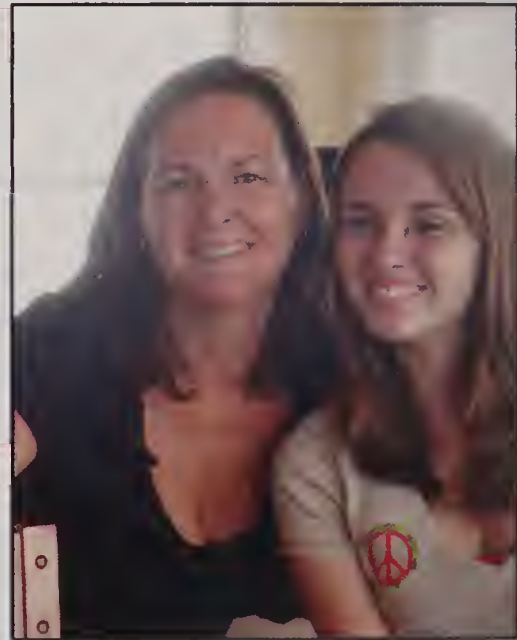

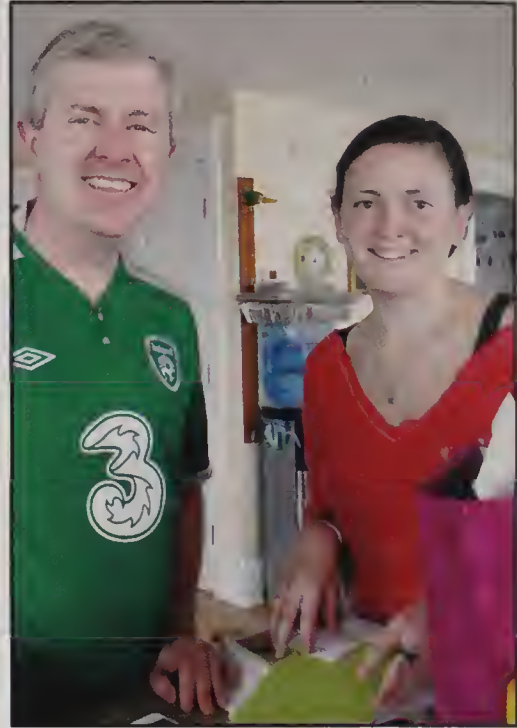

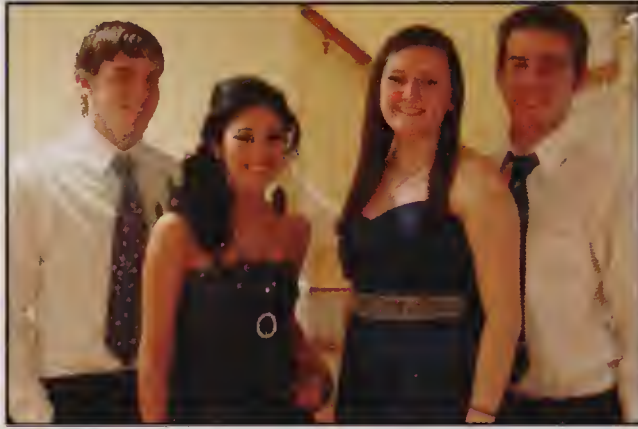

Congratulations, Newt !

Congratulations! Tommy

We are so proud of you!
Mom, Dad, Michael, Nonno & Nonna

Congratulations Patrick!

We can't believe how fast we got here. It is time for you to take "IT" and do and see great things. Relish all the opportunities to make your world bigger, and your character stronger. Take time to celebrate your successes and learn from your missteps. Open your heart and mind to new friendships and experiences, yet always cherish your old friends and memories. There are no words that can accurately describe how proud and privileged we feel to have you as a son, and for Matthew and Lauren to call you their brother. Your respect and loyalty to family has always been mature beyond your years, "The Ship" lives on in you. You have grown to be a mature, thoughtful and loving young man. We can't wait to see what the future holds for you. Keep your eyes smiling! We love you, Dad, Mum, Matthew and Lauren

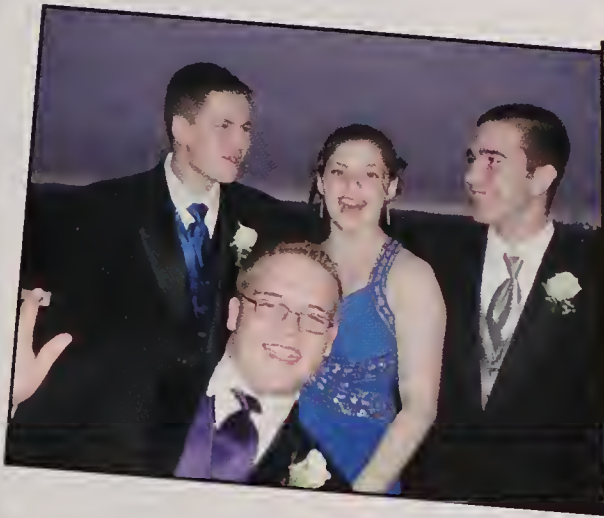

Sean O'Donnell

Congratulations Sean, we are so proud of you! Your love of books, eagerness to learn, and willingness to teach others are the stepping stones to your future. Cherish and foster your gift and you will soon find yourself in the midst of your dreams.

CONGRATULATIONS BOYS!!!!

Thank you for sharing part of your journey with us, for being great friends to Patrick and to each other, and more importantly, answering endless amounts of questions with a smile. You have all truly become part of our family. The door will always be unlocked and you will always be welcome. Good Luck.

Love, The Davis Family

Oliver Cahill

With many memories made & lessons learned along the way, we're finally here at Graduation. It seems like not so long ago, there was a daily battle over your hairstyle choices. And now it's almost time to open your time capsule from PrePrimary. Oliver we are so very proud of you! Continue to make good choices and always know how loved you are.
Always, Dad, Mom, Molly & Tracy

Kendall Joan Fisher

My beautiful baby girl Kendall, I'm so Proud of the kind, loving, and compassionate soul that is you. I truly cherish our times together and will miss you every day. I know that you will follow your dreams, and succeed in reaching your goals in life! You're a strong and amazing young woman.

I Love You to the moon and back again
Mom

My Dear KJ, I'll always Cherish the times we shared together, especially our days fishing at the "bad luck pond" You are all grown - up now and ready to make a difference in this world, but remember you will Always be "Daddy's little girl".

I Love You Always and Forever
Daddy

Kendy, It is hard to believe that you're graduating high school. It seems like yesterday that I was in your shoes and you were a freshman. I'm so excited for you to be starting college next year, and I'm so proud of you! You'll do great in all that you pursue. I love you little Sis!!
Love,
Coco
